A SECOND STIGMATIST, Padre Pio of the Capuchin Order, living in San Giovanni Rotondo, Italy, has been visited by Hector Bolduc of Giltford who is traveling in Europe and is at present in Muhlheim, Germany. Hector saw the late famed Theresa Neumann, German stigmatist who died some time ago.

Stigmatist is one who bears wounds on the hands, feet and side similar in character to those borne by Christ at the Crucifixion and Hector reminds that the church approaches the matter cautiously. Padre Pio appears in the picture, his hands covered by mitts to absorb the blood and with him is Father Joseph Chariens of Toulouse, France, who was instrumental in introducing Hector, in the rear right, to the priest to whom thousands come annually.
