

APRIL 1, 1971 Laconia Evening Citizen

UNCLE SAM MEDAL is received by James J. Josendale, deputy assistant postmaster general, from Sen. Thomas J. McIntyre in the senator's Washington office. The Uncle Sam medal was provided by Brother

Hector Bolduc of Laconia, to commemorate the only floating post office, the Uncle Sam. This floating post office traveled Lake Winnepesaukee, providing an invaluable service to the residents on the islands.
