

10 Years Ago

(From The Evening Citizen)

The sixth in its chain of women's speciality shops, a Miss Lynch Shop opened in Laconia with Mrs. Deveda Baker as manager assisted by Mrs. Irene Bedard.

The young Laconia Snowshoe Club hosted the convention of the National Congress of Snowshoe Clubs attended by 1,500 representatives from clubs in all New England states, New York and Province of Quebec. Crowned queen by Gov. Wesley Powell was Jo-Ann Belair. On her court were Sandra Chagnon, Mary Drouin Chase, Joyce Gale, Jackie Snow and Joyce Traverse.

Retiring from office at the end of his term after five consecutive two-year terms which was thought to be a record in the city's history, Councilman Harold Teft was presented a plaque by his colleagues. Mayor J. Oliva Huot made the presentation.

Two local skiers came in for honors as the National Ski Association of America in its 1961 Directory hailed Penny Pitou the Ski Athlete of the Year and named Larry Simoneau, Colorado University star, for honorable mention to the 1960 All-American Collegiate Team.

Spec. Hector Bolduc, who before his enlistment founded the I Like Ludwig clubs as a protest against the I Like Alvis ones that had swept the country with the result that the Ludwig club movement became international in scope, was guest of honor for the second year at the Beethoven birthday anniversary in Bonn.

84

10-1971